

What You See Is Not What You Get

- (average) The usual kind or amount. The number gotten by dividing the sum of two or more quantities by the number of quantities added.
- (canopy) Anything that covers like a roof. On a tree, the area of leaves that cover the ground.
- (immune system) The system within the body that protects the body from disease; includes white blood cells and antibodies.
- (optical) Relating to vision or to light.
- (quantity) An amount or portion.
- (reflectivity) The property of casting back light, heat, sound, etc.
- (relationship) Two or more things that are connected in some fashion.
- (species) Groups of organisms that resemble one another in appearance, behavior, chemical processes, and genetic structure.
- (tree crown) The upper green section of a tree with leaves or needles.
- (ultraviolet radiation) Invisible rays of light lying beyond the violet end of the spectrum.