

Some Things Will Always Change

1. (adapt) To change so as to fit new conditions.
2. (barren) Not producing crops, fruit, or many trees.
3. (biome) An area of Earth with similar plants and animals because of its climate.
4. (climate) The average condition of the weather at a place.
5. (complexity) The state of being complicated or having many related parts.
6. (consensus) Agreement of all or most.
7. (dense) Having its parts close together.
8. (diverse) Differing from one another.
9. (former) Earlier or in the past.
10. (habitat) Environment where a plant or animal naturally grows and lives.
11. (land use history) The story of how land has been used by people over time.
12. (latitude) Distance north or south of the Equator.
13. (native) Naturally occurring in an area.