

Big Fish in a Small Pool

- (conserve) To avoid wasteful or destructive use of something.
- (dominant) Being able to control all others, or being in the majority.
- (fish biologist) A person who studies fish and the processes that support fish.
- (habitat) The environment where a plant or animal naturally grows and lives.
- (pool) A quiet, deep place in a stream.
- (riffle) A shallow place in a stream with fast water and small waves.
- (salmonids) Long, bony fishes such as salmon or trout.
- (species) Group of organisms that resemble one another in appearance, behavior, chemical processes, and genetic structure.
- (vacant) Not occupied.