

Turn That Radio Down

- (breeding habitat) Environment where an animal nests and reproduces as opposed to where it lives during the rest of the year.
- (cavity) A hollowed out space.
- (conifer) A type of evergreen tree (pine, fir, spruce) that has cones.
- (day-roost) When birds with wings rest or sleep during the day.
- (forage) (1) Food for animals usually taken by browsing or grazing and (2) the act of taking such food.
- (forest manager) Skilled individual who takes care of natural forest resources.
- (habitat) Environment where a plant or animal naturally grows and lives.
- (nocturnal) Relating to or occurring at night.
- (population) The total number of individuals of a species living in an area.
- (radiotelemetry) The process of using radio waves to record the location of animals.
- (tree crown) The upper green section of a tree with leaves or needles.
- (wildlife manager) Skilled individual who manages natural resources for wildlife.